Radiohead and Coldplay got together to discuss the bands they like best. The answer? The Beatles and Motion Soundtrack. 10 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, ROCK: 90's Rock Details: Motion Soundtrack was formed in early 2000 as an outlet for four like-minded musicians, and has since evolved into one of Canada's finest Alternative Pop groups. Often described as atmospheric with driving energy and catchy melodies, Motion Soundtrack has garnered much success and attention from the music industry and music lovers alike. Motion Soundtrack's 2004 Cazart!/Universal release, "The Bridge", has received much critical acclaim. The group's infectious tunes and dynamic musicianship have been compared to bands such as Travis, Radiohead, Oasis, and The Stereophonics, but Motion Soundtrack has a sound all its own. From beautiful love songs, like 'I Get Lost' (the video is currently on rotation on MuchMusic and MuchMoreMusic), to driving anthems like 'Knockin' (MuchMusic and MTV Canada gave the video strong airplay and the song was on Much Music's 'Going The Distance' soundtrack), "The Bridge" has truly been a key phase in this bands journey. Motion Soundtrack is still moving fast. Having opened for bands like The Stereophonics and Idlewild, their live sound has been described by fans and industry as one of the best in Canada. The band is currently composing a new record that they will begin recording in the fall of 2005, after summer touring. Motion Soundtrack is positioning themselves as one of the best acts to keep your eye on.
