Liveaboard boaters music. Acoustic guitar with an island touch and Latin flare with grits thrown in. Music you would listen to while anchored out on a boat. Fun times on the water from the Carolina's to the Virgins. 8 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock, ROCK: Trop Rock Details: Singer and songwriter Robert McDuffy, lives on the ICW on the outskirts of historic Beaufort, NC where Blackbeard's pirate boat, "Queen Anne's Revenge" lay wrecked on the bottom of the Beaufort Inlet. In his music, he paints a picture of good times on the water and the love of boating. The song: "Life's Been Good To Me" is an example of what his life is about. This jolly life I'm living never comes to an end...these crazy days of summer are starting all over again. Blue skys and sun in my eyes, a warm wind in my sails, I've got a rainbow in my heart and a postcard on the rail, life's been good to me. Singer/songwriter Dickie Searce with his soulful tenor voice sings harmonies on several songs, a very nice touch. Greenville NC musicians: Victor Hudson and Suzanna McFadden sing harmonies on "Back in Caroline" making it a country favorite. Supergrit Cowboy Band's, Mark Goliday plays killer licks on "Back in Caroline" also. Throw out the anchor, throw on some Robert McDuffy and don't forget to take the fish off the grill. Life is good! People who are interested in James Taylor Jimmy Buffett Kenny Chesney should consider this download.
