Details: Combining amazing songwriting skills with her powerful vocal abilities, Robin Castaldi's music flows with undeniable force and heart-grabbing emotion. "We Can Fly" will captivate listeners with its glorious mix of spirited, inspiring rhythms and passionate, flowing melodies. Here Robin uses her experience as a veteran lead "chick singer" and club performer to bring her energy to life in the driving and dance-inducing tunes such as "Promise Me", "Dreams", "No Matter What" and "We Can Fly".

Enthusiastic percussion and drums add an even more upbeat flavor to what are already irresistible, hook-driven tunes. Alternately, her rich, beautiful ballads reach into the depths of the listener's soul with the ache of their longing melodies and insightful lyrics. Referred to as the "Queen of the Haunting Ballads", Robin's abilities in this area are perhaps most notably showcased in "Don't Say Another Word".

This gorgeous song paints a poignant, heart-wrenching picture of the painful ending of a love affair. On "Eyes Of Love" the deep, comfortable emotions of lovers in the midst of everyday life are almost palpable in this rich, flowing song. And "I Am There" touches the heart as it deals poignantly with loss and loneliness. While this CD's first ten songs would be most aptly described as "Adult Contemporary" in the vein of Celine Dion, Faith Hill or Martina McBride, Robin has also paid tribute to her Contemporary Christian roots in the unforgettable ballad "Forgiven". Here the Christian message is presented with touching, aching honesty in one of the most beautiful melodies on the album. And the final cut, "America My Home", is a patriotic anthem that is surprisingly moving in its message and deeply stirring in its music and production. If you like skillfully-written, beautifully sung and well-produced adult contemporary music,
