

Mp3 Roesy - The Backbone, Flesh And The Fruit Ep

DOWNLOAD HERE

6 songs recorded by Roesy at home in the early hours. This is nighttime listening at its best. A prelude to the next album due out in Feb 2008 6 MP3 Songs FOLK: Irish Contemporary, FOLK: Alternative Folk
Details: I start recording the next album in October and will have a clearer picture around December when and how it will be released to your good self. Off course you will get it first here at CDbaby x roesy

"Roesy has a relaxed, gentle-voiced singing style that evokes shades of Nick Drake without sacrificing its own originality" (The Evening Herald) "Tender-hearted Irish singer/songwriters are two a cent but Roesys the best of the lot" (RTE Guide) "...armed with a crystalline pair of vocal chords..." (Irish Times) Through his career he has shared the stage with Bert Jansch, Ron Sexsmith, Paul Brady, Billy Bragg, John Martyn, Davy Spillane, Donovan, Shane MacGowan, plus celebrated Irish author Paul Durcan. Roesy appeared in the first Other Voices TV series on RTE. He was nominated for Best New Irish Act in the 2004 Meteor Music Awards and voted No.8 in the Trad/Folk section of the Annual Hot Press Awards 2005. He has released four albums and designed the artwork for each one. He was voted No.6 in the best Album Sleeve category of the Hot Press Readers Poll 2003 for his second album 'The Spirit Store'. His song 'Potosi Mine' was included in the 'Diamond Mountain Session Presents' compilation CD, also featuring Sinead OConnor, Steve Earle, Natalie Merchant and Sharon Shannon. Colour Me Colourful (N4 Records 06) Roesy has a second career as a vivid, provocative painter. This album applies the same colourful vision to his music, with often masterful effect 8/10 (Hot Press) Its got an edge that will lodge him comfortably apart from the mainstream 3/5 (The Irish Times)

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

MP3 In Color - In Color \(the Lamp Album\)