Details: Life is too short to listen to the same, monotonous beat. St. Urbain is slick, tight pop-rock with a songwriters spirit. Making ample use of, but not being used by technology, the grooves are sultry, latin, old and new school techno and funky. With their debut release Whos Minding the Store? St. Urbain asks just the right questions: Are you in control? Did we climb down from the trees just so we could escape reality? And what is with that girl? We invite you to escape into these eleven tunes that are never repetitious, and always tied together by fine musicianship and thoughtful wordplay. Like discovering new comfort food. Please enjoy responsibly. Sorry, no songs about booty (well, just one about vacation sex).
