Cameo meets Rod Stewart/Funkadelik 13 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Funk, BLUES: Louisiana Blues
Details: Frank Thibeaux: aka TEBO is an incredible bassist with a technically distinctive playing method. Tebo's versatility sweeps through Blues, Gospel, Hip Hop, Jazz, R&B and Rock; from studio to clubs and live theater. His golden-dusty-blues-down voice interprets a song with simple, heads on clarity. He writes and produces, he also works with young artists helping them to develop their talents towards entering the music industry. My band Percision moved from Menlo Park CA 2 L.A. In da mid 80's we hit THE club seen wit a bang, we moved 2 crip hood 111st Vermont it was ruff but kool we learned a lot about da hoods of L.A. Percision went on tour to Japan, that was kool, just to be in another part of the world have people dance to the muzik. We came back to L.A. hooked up with Lonzo Dr. Dre of the World Class Wreckin Cru started production wit them, soon after DRE cut out went with N.W.A. Percision helped Lonzo finish the album turn off the lights 4 a very small fee, in return he was to help us do our album but thats a long story. The single turn off the lights hit the billboard top 40, the next single was a song I wrote called lay your Body down, it peaked about 78 in Billboard, it was kool just to see my name in Billboard.....but one day I will have a 1 hit. I have never had as much fun as I did in da Percision dayz, we would just blow bands away, da fact that we all lived together helped a lot, we had what it took to be stars. In the era of 1987-88 lots of bands broke up, Percision was one of them. No matter what was said, or who did what, it was just the sign of da times (DJ'S HIP HOP) had musicians so frustrated we all lost our minds blamed each other, don't get me wrong I love hip hop....I just didn't know how 2 deal wit da power it possessed. Please enjoy these old pics of Percision. I moved back 2 da Bay started workin with young ARTISTS on muzik production stage presence. I also worked with Hammer, Def Jam, Dru-Down, Assassin, Chunk, Herbie Hancock, John Lee Hooker Jr. so many more, I think I should do a book. Did
