Acoustic guitar music with a blend of pop, classical and light jazz. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Delicate, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: "Love's Pure Light" is a unique collection of accoustic guitar music featuring favorite Christmas caroles. Styles range from pop to classical to light jazz with melodies that surprise and delight the listener. From the opening bars of the first song, it's clear that this CD will captivate. Released in 2001, "Love's Pure Light" received a warm reception in the Detroit, MI area. Several radio stations played cuts from the CD, and Tom was featured in two radio interviews. Several local newspapers gave their hearty endorsement as well, helping to promote the CD. The Detroit News selected Tom as their "Artist of the Week" in December of 2001. Tom is 50 years young, and has been playing the guitar since age 12. He and his wife Sally have been happily married for 29 years, and have four sons who perform music as well. Sally plays flute on two of the tracks. A note from Tom: "I enjoy composing and playing songs that brings a sense of peace and well-being to the listener. I hope you have that experience as you listen to my music. Blessings to you!"
