Soul with a dash of family love and spiritual praise, just in time for the holidays... This will be a soulful holiday favorite for years to come. "Love's all you need to wear, cause it's warm in the winter here." 11 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Soul, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: We were all blown away by He That Hath An Ear, Let Him Hear(HTHAELHH) and now Adrienne Archie, 26, does it again with her second album, Warm Winter, scheduled to release November 21, 2006. With 11 of some of the most diverse seasonal tracks ever heard, Archie and Joel Goodwin, producer, give us all a Christmas gift we won't forget. Who would ever think "Angels We Have Heard On High," what Archie calls "Gloria," could ever be a deep-funk driven tune that's sure to make you get up and "dance if ya' reborn"!? "Do Adore" an inspirational worship song, displays Archie's impeccable presence and ability to embrace many styles of worship. Warm Winter includes 9 original tracks and 2 traditionals all written and performed by the Archie-Goodwin duo. Warm Winter is hott, hands down!! Jazz, R&B, gospel, hip-hop, they give it all to us, again! "It is important to me that people are able to show and share Christs' love with each other! Family, friends and love are all we've got! Knowing that makes me feel all "warm" inside! (grin)", says Archie. Archie's Warm Winter album is sure to set the atmosphere with warmth and love during your next family gathering.
