HipHip/Rap, Cheerful snobbish and Pop 7 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Title URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Welcome To My World-wide Songs Details: Recently ANAYA was chosen by the American Music Company to go to Chicago for their annual artist workshop. ANAYA continues to get great reviews as she has headlined several local events, ie the Scott Joplin House event, the Spanish Lake Family Day Summer festival, the St.Louis Gateway Classic Street Festival(2002), St. Louis Community College (Hip Hop Series) and Joe Torry's (2003) Giving Back The Love Foundation's annual celebrity basketball pep rally. ANAYA's style of music is versatile: a mixture of Rap, Hip Hop and R&B. Anaya continues to dazzle audiences with her electrifying stage presence. Born July 17,1984, in St.Louis,Missouri,Anaya was destined to perform.At age six she discovered her love for entertaining when her parents,Charles and Catherine Hamilton,enrolled her in Pelagie Green Wren Academy of Dance. Dancing with the academy's junior competition team she received many awards and developed her skill of performing,a commitment to work hard and long to perfect every performance,and the ability to bounce back. Anaya's love for music was greatly influenced by her family. She learned that she had the talent and desire to sing at an early age. At eight years old she participated in her first talent show, in which she performed " The Greatest Love Of All". In addition to her euphonic singing voice, Anaya also possesses the talent for rapping. Her rapping talent was brought to light after her cousins introduced her to the world of rap at age nine. Her ability to sing and rap merge in some of her songs, such as her hit single "I Can't Let You Go" to produce a kind of soulful journey into todays hectic relationships. Anaya has always envisioned sharing her performances with the world. One of her fondest memories as a child is standing on the living room couch and singing to her toy moose, pretending it was a crowd of people. Anaya can be found at various venues throughout the St.Louis Area.She continues to produce new music while attending Fontbonne University
