Details: Charles Vienn II is a native of Houston, TX. He is an accomplished vocalist, actor, and graphic designer. He has been actively involved in the entertainment industry since his teenage years, with several music projects, stage plays and movies to his credit. As a former Virgin Records recording artist, he is best known for his founding membership in the Houston based recording group IDEAL. After taking some time off to perfect his craft, he now dedicates his time worldwide helping other artist obtain their dream while he lives his. Charles Vienn II is looking forward again to a major label debut. He has created a buzz around Texas and California as well as on the internet airwaves with various songs like "Pray 4 you", "Keep Me in Your Way", "Time to make a Change" and other songs just to name a few. Vienn has become known as "The Hook King", as he can be heard on several local Hip Hop CD's singing the hooks that make the songs shine. Not only has he become a great singer/writer, he is an exceptional music producer/engineer. Charles is no stranger to the studio, its equipment, and various computer programs. With a degree in graphic design, and also a certified AVID film editor he moves around and studio (big or small) with ease, making most people's impossibles possible. Heaven's Hits is filled with wonderful tracks that show that he has the ability to write and produce on the major label scale. He describes his style as "Love Truth / ClassiSoul". The Houston native's influence includes Midwestern-related talents like Motown's Marvin Gaye, Ray Parker Jr., Donny Hathaway and Nat "King" Cole, as well as Sting, James Taylor, and Steely Dan. Vienn frequently sings around the Southern California area where he now lives, as well as travels to other cities around the U.S. as his schedule allows. Feeling the need to test himself in unfamiliar waters, Vienn plans to continue his travels, as well as continue singing at various churches, concerts, and events. For booking call: (909)520-1022
