Blending smooth R&B vocals with Hip Hop tracks and a passion for worship, CRS's debut album stands out with his original Rap/Sing/Soul/Worship style. 12 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix, HIP HOP/RAP: Spiritual Rap Details: Blending smooth R&B vocals with Hip Hop tracks and a passion for worship, PHF Productions introduces their debut artist, CRS. The debut album, No Holding Back, showcases CRS's Rap/Sing/Soul/Worship style bringing forth a positive message that encourages change. No Holding Back features guest appearances by Enock, AZA, Blesst Chosen. From the hard hitting save a thug to the powerful stormz the anointed worship of all i want is more of You, No Holding Back combines many different styles to create CRS's unique sound. CRS, Chris Sanchez, is currently a Worship Leader Youth Worker at his church, Victory Outreach Houston, under Pastor Ernie Lopez. In 2001, CRS studied at the Victory Outreach Urban Training Center in Bridgeport, Connecticut where he was immersed in Bible study, personal development and hands-on ministry training. In 2003, CRS appeared on the Much Luvv Records compilation: Slow Lane Chronicles chopped and screwed by Paul Wall with his song stormz (featuring BLESSt). In 2002, he appeared on a compilation CD from Dale Eugene Records called "New Voices" featuring the song Lord Forgive Me by BLESS't, AZA and CRS. CRS and PHF Productions are determined to follow God's will, NO HOLDING BACK, moving forward as they embark on a journey to reach souls for Christ.
