With warmth and humor, the world's only viola and bass clarinet duo combine folk, medieval and classical music from Denmark, Greece, France and North America for a style all their own. 17 MP3 Songs

CLASSICAL: Contemporary, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: Never content to merely be the only bass clarinet and viola duo in the world, Darkwood Consort has cultivated a repertoire of exotic instrumental music that blends folk, medieval and classical music delivered with wit. Darkwood has taken its brand of stand-up chamber music from Idaho to Denmark, the 33rd International Viola Congress in Iceland, the first World Bass Clarinet Conference in Holland to the Katrina-ravaged gulf coast in Mississippi. The new CD demonstrates Darkwood's genuine taste for the eclectic with Manos Hadjidakis' exotic Amidst the Ruins of Hadrian's Gate, their Danish heritage with Jeg gik mig ud en sommerdag, their love of the Middle Ages with Dufay's Adieu ces bons vins de Lannoys, their commitment to social justice with Buffy Sainte-Marie's Seeds of Brotherhood, and a dose of humor with Roger Miller's King of the Road, which Miller wrote in Darkwood's base of operations, Boise, Idaho. Wowed the crowd we clapped until our hands hurt Sara Beitia, Boise Weekly Virkelig spændende Fedt at blande klassisk og nordisk folk sammen til en helt ny genre Christian Brns, Danish pop star A special experience Steve Trott, The Highwaymen New schoola smash Erin Ryan, Thrive Unikke kammerduospiller med glimt i jet og sans for humor Vrlse Nyt, Danmark
