West Coast Hip Hop 17 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, HIP HOP/RAP: West Coast Rap Details: Gripping vocals, strong lyrics, and West Coast Beats are the meat and potatoes of Hill-Bs 1st solo effort, Different Game, Same Aim. A hard-hitting Hip-Hop album capable of leaving fans shaking, MCs with their jaws on the floor, DJs quivering, and will even have rockers feeling hip for a second or two, with pure and emotional energy. Different Game, Same Aim is as Raw and as Real as it gets. With thick layers of instrumentation fronted by Hill-Bs trademark smooth, deep, in-your-face voice and a tender ear for catchy punch lines, Hill-B is able to combine a tone similar to Busta Rhymes. With a flow unlike any former pro NFL or NBA player turned part-time rapper, Hill-B stands to set himself apart from others who have tried to make the switch. All while creating a tightly produced, hook-laden Rap album appealing to indie, hip-hop, and pop fans alike. To put it another way, Hill-Bs Different Game, Same Aim takes you to a time when the party has just started. The Clubs @ capacity, and you were the last to get in, wondering how you ended up in this situation, visioning how youre gonna get the girl at the party, and how life seems to be coming up roses at the moment. Though, even with bad times, greatness is looming ahead. A bit of sunshine cracks through the clouds and promises that tomorrow just may be a bit better. And the day after that may find you shaking the haters off and picking yourself right back up. Good things come to those who wait. For Hill-B, its a Different Game, Same Aim! Fan base from football Hill-B HILL-B: Ex-NFL linebacker former member of the Denver Broncos Seattle Seahawks, Hillary Butler, aka Hill-B is no stranger to the mic since he was 13 years old! Just completing his 1st solo album debut as a Producer/Artist with "Different Game, Same Aim." Unlike other kats from pro NFL NBA status turned part time rapper, Hill-B stands out on his own has the lyrical skills production skills to prove others wrong as he takes his passion to full time status. Hill-B expects nothing less than the same success "off the field" that he has experienced "on the field" as he focuses on his new venture into the music industry. Butler retired from the NFL in 2000, after sustaining career ending injury while playing w/ Broncos. Hillary won a Super Bowl ring from Denver's 1st championship season in 1997. Butler ended 1998 season w/ Seattle Seahawks, after spending 1st half of season w/ Broncos. Hillary returned to Denver for start of 2000 season before injuring shoulder and retiring. Butler also spent time with San Francisco 49ers. He was one of original 10 members 1st linebacker signed to Jacksonville Jaguars franchise in '95. Hillary also spent time in NFL Europe, playing for the Frankfurt Galaxy while setting and still holding team records for most tackles in a single game and total tackles for a season. Hill-B graduated with a Bachelor degree in Public Relations from the University of Washington. He helped lead the Huskies to 3 straight Rose Bowl appearances, a Freedom Bowl victory, 1991 National Championship, and was a Hula Bowl participant recognizing the nation's top seniors. Hill-B started his rap career as a member of Canadian based Indie Label called Hard Tyme Records and his group called "Alibi." Alibi, in 2000, toured BC, opening up for major artist in Vancouver such as Snoop Dogg and DJ Jam, Kurupt and Nate Dogg, E-40 and the Click, Naughty by Nature, Digital Underground, and more... Hill-B is now ready to show case his abilities as a producer, engineer, and solo artist. Hill-B produced, recorded, and mixed almost his entire album himself. Additional production by Thrill, Savage, the Mechanix. Other appearances by KnuckleHeadBanga, LRG and Fugitive Da Felon from APP (All Purpose Productions), and Dirty O. Much expected from this former Super Bowl Champ turned producer/artist. You could've peeped his debut single "It's A Fiesta" on "Rock Da Beat-Volume 1," Promo Vinyl by Nasty Nes for rapattacklives.com. Another single- "Believe me" will be featured on upcoming "Rock Da Beat-Volume 3. It's a "Different Game," but still the "Same Aim."
