Through her, dance became a big part of my life, but I still can't do it! 6 Bachelor's Freetime: Memories of all of the great clubs we were playing in and hanging out, looking for another adventure. 7 Sentimental Whispers: Like the look in a person's eyes could whisper: Often it says more than words. 8 River Ride: For all of the times I slept outside by a river, I had to do something with these sounds. 9 Optimistic: Being optimistic is certainly more fun than wasting energy by being pessimistic. 10 Don't Step (on my toes again): This song is written in protest of people who step on other people's toes. 11 Spirit of a Climber: In memory of a wonderful person who had an enormous power for life, adventure, cooperation, helpfulness and such an easy going type of being. Hopefully, some of Remo Duerig's essence is captured in this music. 12 Enjoy your Dreams: I keep my most secret dreams for myself, but you are holding one of them in your hands... 13 Nature Warrior: I spend one week hiking in the mountains every year and have a special place in my heart for nature. I hope that this song will somehow be a contribution to the conservation of it. 14 Full Moon: Written in my favorite measure, dedicated to my friends, who often are a little unsquare themselves. 15 Going Clav: This key of rhythm ain't for walkin, but you can try!
