How do you call somebody with a passion of music and over all, with a heart of a servant? Lil FEJ whose name stands for Firmly Established on Jesus is not an ordinary artist. He is a preacher, producer, song writer, rapper, and singer put together in one. Born in Monrovia Liberia, he managed to migrate to the USA with his family which led him to become one of the best Gospel musician Liberia has ever produced. Lil FEJ started rapping at the age of 11 with lyrics that had everybody question his skills. Growing up on the streets of Trenton, New Jersey, it was only right that one become a gang member to survive. But instead Lil FEJ stay away and spend most of his days in the Church learning the Word of God. He would battle the street rappers and win. I mean while the other rappers talking about guns and using abusive words, Lil FEJ would open up with a line that made everybody stop and listen. A line different then their everyday rap; a line that grabs the heart and turns it around. At the age of 15, Lil FEJ music ministry began. He worked during the summer to earn him some studio time. The first song of his independent release was the talk of Trenton, New Jersey and West Africa. The album was done and it was time take it on the road. He visited hundreds of different Churches, camps, Youth Conventions, and youth groups around the east coast to spread the word of God and to let the world know that with Jesus all things are possible. He continues to become the king of Gospel rap in West Africa and the East Coast with another slam hit independent release Spiritual Speaking. The hit single Ride Wit Me Remix, and Dance, which hit the Liberian Gospel Chart (LGC) with the number 1 spot for two weeks. 4 days on the South African gospel countdown, Best selling independent artists of 2005, Producer of the year. Lil' FEJ lates video'Dance', receive at least 5 airplay everyday on MTV based africa and Channel 0. He also met with top rap artist like Lil Irocc, Verbs, and Da T.R.U.T.H who encouraged him to keep doing what he do.
