As an accomplished singer and songwriter, Melissa's talents have taken her around the world, performing in Spain, Greece, Costa Rica and Fiji as well as numerous engagements here in the states. Melissa just cut her debut album, "Sweet Faith", and is currently meeting with various record labels. The album, produced by Marvin Etzioni, features the unique blend of Melissa's soulful vocals, raw and inspiring lyrics and earthy instrumentals with world renowned musicians Alex Acuna and Abe Laboriel. As a young working actress and singer, Melissa knows first hand, the pressures young people have to face today and she encourages them not to compromise their values for the sake of fitting in. Melissa's original music and dynamic voice continue to be heard in feature film and TV projects. She provides the singing voice of Disney's Snow White as well as the lead character in the feature animated film, Trumpet of the Swan with Reese Witherspoon. She is also well known for her work as Ginger on Nickelodeon's three-time Emmy nominated series "As Told By Ginger", for her two recent Disney Princess albums and Max Lucado's Hermie and Wormie children's series.
