Originally from Cleveland Ohio, Mr. Nathan grew up with a father who played trumpet and led worship at church. His mother played piano for the church and his brother learned music and sang at church. Mr. Nathan was inspired to play when his father asked him to pick up the trumpet and try to buzz a sound. After that he was hooked! His dad began to encourage him to learn more and more. Soon his mom added fuel to the fire by signing him up for lessons. Soon after, he was playing for school bands, city wide youth orchestras, marching bands, chamber groups, and various jazz ensembles. Mr. Nathan continued on in college with the wind symphony, jazz ensemble and free lance bands started by him and a campus ministry praise group. Mr. Nathan attributes his ear for music to God for giving him the gift (1st Peter 2:9)
