A classic sound, The Edisons excel at filler-free power pop that is filled with plaintive, colorful vocals, inviting and consistently memorable melodies and atoning hooks. 13 MP3 Songs POP: Beatles-pop, ROCK: 80's Rock Details: The Edisons are a four piece, Tampa, Florida based, band specializing in classic power pop songs. Their songs echo the sounds of The Beatles, Tom Petty, REM and The Romantics, melding equal parts rock and pop. "Lost In The Dream" was recorded from March thru October at Zen Recording Studio. Produced by Steve Connelly and the band, the Cd features 13 finely crafted songs that range from straight ahead rockers like "The Flame" to shadows of the British Invasion in "Dangerous Girl". There is also the taste of the bands alternative side on "Just For You" and "Call On Me". "Lost In The Dream" embodies the songwriting input of the members of band. The diversity in the songwriting styles adds an added dimension to the tracks and offers an insight into the individual influences that each member brings. Ultimately there are two tracks that really define the CD. The first is the title track "Lost In The Dream". This pulls its influences from two classic rock albums. The Beatles "Sgt Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band" and Pink Floyds "Dark Side Of The Moon". A haunting tale of how we are all lost in our own dream, and searching for definition and strength in our lives. "Seven Minutes" is a stark but hopeful reflection of a tragic incident. This song is dedicated and inspired by Adam Walsh, who was abducted and murdered on Florida's east coast in July of 1981. "Lost In The Dream" is a collection of songs filled with thought-provoking lyrics and melodies that will swim in your head.
