Three lonely and unhappy young women are forced to suffer the whims of a loathsome earl who treats them like property. Wife, daughter, and maid, each woman wishes for something more than a bleak future under his thumb. So when three handsome and mysterious strangers arrive with seduction in mind, the women bloom under their scandalous tutelage. Until they discover their new lovers are hiding a potentially devastating secret. Excerpt: With her mind on His Lordship, Millie stepped back out of the closet and ran smack into a solid mass. She yelped. She swayed on her feet and a strong arm slipped around her waist to hold her tight. The smell of soap and male wafted through her senses. "Lud, please forgive me . . . me clumsiness." She grasped a muscular forearm, recognizing the livery but not the footman wearing it. She had to tip her head back to peer at the whole of him and she swayed. The stranger's handsome face softened when he loosened her from his hold. She blinked hard to clear her befuddled senses. Her tongue twisted under his warm regard. "'Tis I who should apologize, Miss." He stepped back and dipped his head. A lock of silky brown hair fell over his forehead. "I have just started my position here and am unfamiliar with the house. I shall have to watch my step." Oh, his speech was as fine as His Lordships!

Millie gaped and warmed up in all her secret places. If he wanted a tour of the closets, she knew them all, intimately. She batted her lashes and realized her day just got brighter. Without Lady Bea's scowls to off-put amorous inclinations, Millie wondered if the new footman would be interested in a bit of play. She cocked her head to the side. "Me name's Millie. I know this house from attic to cellar. Call if ye need anything, anything at all. I am skilled in many, er, tasks." Fair brows lifted. The implication hung between them. He smiled. Through his coat, she could see he was more muscled than His Lordship and a good score younger. She lowered her gaze slowly to the front of his trousers, then back up to his eyes. If he'd had any question of her intentions, he was clear now. "I will hold you to your generous offer, Miss Millie, another time." He tugged at his blue coat sleeves and dipped his eyes to her full bubbies. "I have been given a list of duties and have no time for, ah, tours of the attic and cellar at present." "If ye need me, me room is the one at the end of the servant's hall. The door is never locked." "I'll remember." A flush of heat washed through her and caused her nipples and nubbin to throb as he turned and walked away. She wanted to feel his long, naked body pressing her into her cot while she cupped his buttocks and gasped his name as he pounded into her with his hard length. "Wait," she called. He stopped and turned. "I do not know yer name." "'Tis Thomas," he said with a wink and vanished into the kitchen with her gaze locked onto his sculpted bum.
