HEAT LEVEL: SIMMERING; FOUR STARS!" That's how Just Erotic Romance Reviews describes Christina Rhys work. It also says her unique blend of romantic erotica "will make you want to fall in love all over again." In Worth the Wait you will meet Anna and Robert, unforgettable people in an unforgettable story. Separated by hundreds of miles, these two lonely people, past the first blush of youth yearning for passion and love to return to their lives. Each carries scars and pain from past relationships. Neither is sure that they have the strength or the desire to try again at this stage of life . yet each feels the emptiness inside. Anna, a lonely and determined widow, having abandoned her hopes of finding a special love to soothe the ache in her heart, to keep a roof over her head accepts a job as the housekeeper for a Wyoming rancher. Robert has offered Anna the position only because he can no longer run the ranch and keep up with the housework alone. Little does he realize that Anna's arrival will bring more than he expected. She will be able to make his blood boil hotter than the food she prepares in his kitchen. She will also ignite a raging battle within his heart. Would he be disloyal to the memory of his late wife if he pursued Anna as his body aches for him to do? In Wyoming Anna has to come to grips with who she is and what exactly she wants for the remainder of her life. For she feels the same physical attraction for Robert, but wonders what he really wants from her? A mere live-in sex partner or a marriage based on with love and mutual lust? And if the former, could she cast aside her personal convictions and settle for an affair? With doubts and issues from their pasts confusing both of them Robert and Anna still cannot ignore the electricity that sets both of their bodies on fire. As they fall head over heels into passion will they decide that their love was WORTH THE WAIT.
