A first singalong, dance-along, do-along recording for ages 0-6 with instantly singable lyrics and a gentle style pleasing to children AND parents. 22 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, KIDS/FAMILY: Lullabies Details: Amy Conley is in demand as a performer and teacher of music for families. The director of Music Together of Milford since 1997 and a preschool music specialist since 1984, she has spent most of her adult life singing with and for children. Amy's recordings feature gentle vocals that appeal to children and adults, song choices that reflect her commitment to the inner lives of children and beautiful arrangements on guitar, banjo, hammered dulcimer, fiddle, concertina, piano and percussion. Sound effects add interest and surprise. There are no electric instruments, pitch corrections or artificial ingredients in this recording! Children are exposed to music that's as close to the real thing as a recording can get! Grow Your Own Music reflects ten years of Amy's work with preschool children. She has included her students' favorite songs along with her original ones. The first half of the CD contains action songs, fingerplays and dances. The second half is suitable for rest time. Many preschool teachers have found this recording to provide a perfect balance of doing and listening songs for the classroom.
