Dynamic dark melodies, hard-edged modern rock, with a positive message. Intense and nerveing without getting in your face, letting the music speak for itself. 5 MP3 Songs ROCK: Hard Rock, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Since 2002, Audiblethread have gained a large presence in Cleveland. Beginning in 2001 the project took a year to compose material and put their identity together. With the idea to break into the Cleveland music scene headlining shows from the beginning. Their hard work and planning have made them one of Clevelands best local acts. In May of 2004 they were voted "Best Band in Cleveland," by their fans. A contest held by Scene Magazine and Chicago's MECA Music Conference secured them a spot in the showcase to perform. They have been featured as the cover story and interview in Clevelands, The Northcoast Voice, Entertainment Magazine. The Hard Rock Caf have chose them to host the afterparty on May 21st for the 92.3 X-treme radio X-Fest Concert. Currently the band released the 5 song EP, "Blue: the fifth imprint." in August of 2004 at Peabody's Downunder, Cleveland OH. The CD is enhanced with their first music video "Nevershine." Radio stations in the U.S. and Worldwide have already been adding Audiblethread to their track listing, some of which are located in California, Ohio, North Carolina, New Mexico, Canada, Holland, Switzerland, England and most recently Argentina. In August of 2002 they recorded a 5 song acoustic CD titled, "Suture" to further diversify their listening audience. They have also performed live in an acoustic setting and have had an overwhelming response. One song in particular caught the attention of local Cleveland film maker Ken Bray and screenwriter Darryl McCoullough. They have chosen that song to be the main theme for their independent film titled, "Little Pricks." The DVD version of the movie is targeted towards young film makers making quality films on low budgets. Special behind the scenes footage and interviews with the director, screen writer and cast will be included. To finish the DVD off, the music video for "Nevershine" will be added. The tentative release is schedule for late August with a premiere that the band will perform at and the movie, video will be shown "Suture, Vol. 2" is scheduled to be recorded, winter 2005, and have a spring release, along with new material and full length album sometime in 2005. Audiblethread is currently shopping materials for representation, management and or booking.
