For the "Barney to Britney" crowd, "Pancoast fills the gap with kids tunes focused on subjects that matter to them - things like candy, jumping rope and lost library books." Kristin Proulx, The Concord Monitor 14 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, POP: Party Pop Details: Judy is a true crowd pleaser as witnessed by Lisa Betty Cline of The Charlestown Bridge, "With a resounding rendition of "Wild One," the crowd responded aptly by going unabashedly wild." "Judy Pancoast knows kids, how to talk with them, how to play with them, and how to reach them," wrote Editorial Review, Amazon.com, "She's one of the premiere children's recording artists in the US featuring original, interactive pop-style tunes with family-friendly lyrics." "We got this CD after hearing Judy perform live at the Austin Public Library last summer. It has since become the favorite CD of both my 5-yr old and 7-yr. old," Customer Review, Amazon Featuring 14 songs, "Swimming In Jello" has been endorsed by the Coalition for Quality Children's Media, Kids First! The song itself, received the Children's Music Web Award for Best Song for Young Children. "Swimming In Jello" is one of three award winning CDs comprising a special Collector's Edition of Judy's music. The other two titles are "The Tune Room" and "Are We There Yet?"
