It's an outgrowth of WOKR-TV 13's Many Voices, Many Visions television show and it's original theme song. The Many Voices, Many Visions theme is performed in six different languages and many musical traditions, including a Hammond organ version performed by former Rochester Mayor William A. Johnson, Jr. Your will also hear original songs by other local songwriters who write about the pain of discrimination and the need to unite as a community. This CD not only illustrates first hand the beauty of diversity, but it serves as a real celebration of our multi-faceted community.
