with a mix of jazz undertones, hot ballads, upbeat melodies, and powerful messages markus delivers to you songs straight from the heart and leaves you with a performance you won't forget 14 MP3 Songs

GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: Markus Chatman has been considered to be one of gospels upcoming star's waiting to blow on the scene his voice transcends the limits of genre, and his passionate vocal technique turns any songs into a masterful composition his songs are merely the platform he uses for if there was no music Markus would most certainly preach with as much fervor as he sings. Born in Atlanta and accompanied by one older sibling Markus lost his mother at the age of 14, which he says was some of the hardest years of his life but to quote Markus he says that sometimes it takes a loss to make us stronger or to push us to our destiny. And by all means Markus has persevered through trying times to help other people with the strength and anointing that he has gained to Markus singing is more than performing it is a way to touch peoples hearts and change their lives In (1999) Markus attended the World championships of Performing Arts and brought back the title for best performance in gospel. And recently in (2004) Markus attended the National Gospel Showcase and won the 2004 award for best new artist, we are expecting so much for God to do through his ministry in the next year so stay on line.
