songwriter/guitarist running the gamut from solo nylon string instrumental to full on band and howl arrangement. lyrical precision wed to instrumental breadth. "dylan meets cohen meets cooder". 15 MP3 Songs FOLK: Angry, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Over the years, through the moods, and on a number of machines, I have come to press 'RECORD' because nothing else helped. As a consequence of this habit, I've acquired 100's of hours of music, musical scraps, musical gems. I love them, but for any number of reasons they were never incorporated into my live sets. Crow: "the most evolutionarily advanced bird" gathered the choice bits and, working with Joao Carvalho, a master of mixage and mastering, came up with this work. It is a record spanning styles. It may have something for everyone. Listen on headphones. There are many voices: beautiful, talented singer/songwriters (Lori Cullen, Harmony Trowbridge), birds, native Americans, dead poets...and lots of stringed instruments. Some drums. No keyboards. And brilliant artwork by Paul Safarian. check out: minor7th.com/shorttakes6_02.html#Zacharin2 for a review of this disc
