The Gumbo of Christian Rap. This cd is one that even your grandmamma would bang. For real. Check it out and see if this cd don't have at least one song that everyone in your family like. 14 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Spiritual Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style Details: YOUNG, SAVED, and DANGEROUS!!! This is the only way to describe Prizm a.k.a Ron Williams. He grew up in the Southern city of Baton Rouge, and after a short live life in the world running from God, at age22, finally decided to surrender. From that point on he has been Christed out! Being on a personal mission to make music that's banging, but glorifying the King, he hooked up with Doc Know and the fire started. Prizm locked himself away from all rap influence for the duration of writing this album. Not only the songs but also the name "Prizm" was given by God. A prism is a transparent body used to disperse a beam of light into a spectrum. As God shine through Prizm the world will see the beauty of His work. So what you hear is what was inspired by God. From G's to grandma's, this cd has been everyone's favorite. Buy it, put it in your system and tell the devil to look out! Remember, don't blame us for any neck problems from bobbing your head too much.
