contemporary gospel and inspirational pop 12 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, POP: Delicate Details: ONE BELIEVING MAN is joyful, soulful CD with rousing gospel music and songs that will melt over you like honey. Randy Porter, a rocker, with "a killer voice" is like an impassioned Sting. Kelly Eisenhour is a very talented jazz singer who has performed with the Boston Pops, jazz venues around the country and was Gladys Knight's backup singer in Las Vegas. She has released several solo jazz CDs. John Fluker- backup singer, pianist, and organist for the soundtrack- plays the piano and sings for Gladys Knight. He has written many popular songs and topped the gospel charts in 1994 with Give Me Two Wings. A bonus song on the CD entitled Heavens Light is the full version of He Shines on Me on Gladys Knights album One Voice. Kelly Eisenhours smooth voice is accompanied by Fluker on the organ, back-up singers, and a light drum set. The lyrics bounce back and forth from Kelly to the singers in a kind of question-and -answer style, with one voice telling half of the message, followed soon after by the others echoing the rest of it. Its gentle rhythms and peaceful chords are a pleasure to the ears. When the organ begins on the first cut, it just makes you smile, because the songs are full of joy. Theyre upbeat and happy, making you want to bounce, clap, and sing along. A CD such as this one may be the last thing the average person looks for, but it has the perfect mix of spiritual and upbeat to soothe any soul.
