An indulgent, progressive R&B/jazz release that gives tribute to the musical pioneers of the past, while holding firm to the musical present and forging a path boldly and brightly into the future with creative, musical, lyrical and artistic expressions. Born April 30 in Memphis, TN...Reggie Hamilton began singing at the age of 2 and playing instruments at the young age of 7 yrs old. Growing up in Memphis and in the church gave him a strong musical and spiritual background... with such Memphis musical influences such as: Al Greene, Earth Wind and Fire, Isaac Hayes (his 2nd cousin) and many more national and world renowned artists (Prince, Stevie Wonder, Donnie Hathaway, Marvin Gaye, Michael Jackson, Jimi Hendrix, Luther Vandross, Will Downing, Peabo Bryson, Patti Labelle, Duke Ellington, John Coltrane, Ella Fitzgerald, Sarah Vaughn, Lena Horne, Stanley Turrentine, Herbie Hancock, Quincey Jones, Barry Gordy, Russell Simmons, Kevin Liles, Roberta Flack, Aretha Franklin, etc. and influences from various styles of music (R&B, Jazz, Classical, Rap, Rock, Heavy Metal, Pop, Reggae, Funk, Dance, etc.) it was inevitable that music and the music business was in his blood, thus his evolution as a artist with a thirst for musical and business knowledge, experience, talent and showmanship. During the summer of 1981, at age 11, he taught himself how to play the piano by ear. At the age of 14 (December 14, 1984) his quest as a songwriter and recording artist began; working diligently performing, writing, producing, composing and pressing forward in his pursuits. By the age of 18 he was a well accomplished musician playing a total of 19 instruments which by the age of 22 grew to the total of 27 instruments (including: violin, violas, cello, bass, drums, piano, organ, synth keyboards, acoustic guitar, lead guitar and a host of various percussion instruments). Presently, Reggie Hamilton is an accomplished artist with a love for music and a passion for lyrical, vocal and musical expression. After playing violins in a symphony orchestra for 3 yrs, playing an array of instruments in various bands, producing and creating music for other artists, and eventually venturing out as a solo artist to continue in his musical evolution of over 21 years ...The time has come for the world to partake of this musical journey.
