Pop Rock Soul. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Funk Rock Details: Somewhere between John Mayer and George Benson, Steely Dan and Maroon5 lies SOULoh. The Wilmington, Delaware based band is made up of 3 young musicians whose days of playing together started when they were all enrolled in a performing arts high school 5 years ago. With inventive arrangements and genuine musicianship, SOULoh presents a polished pop/soul/rock/jazz sound that is mature way beyond its member's years. After playing in various line-ups with musicians in the Wilmington area, Brad McClain(vocals/guitar), Vince Cirino(bass/vocals) and Matt Calvarese(drums) took a chance and played a few shows. Solo, together. The trio played a string of dates and in March 2005 entered the studio to begin work on the 10 songs that would become their debut album "How_It_Feels" The album was released in August 2005 and the title track single, "How It Feels" has been receiving considerable local radio airtime. SOULoh's following is growing rapidly and it's star is surely rising.
