If it is something that you enjoy doing, continue to do it and do it at your best. Surround yourself with positive people who will be there to give you positive advice. Success is when preparation meets opportunity. It is better to put an effort toward pursuing a dream rather than not putting forth the effort and wondering about the outcome. A failure is one who falls and stays down, you are not a failure if you fall but continue to get back up and try again. "Queens of Crunk" Street Fame Music Group
