Vincent's music is a unique blend of timeless Beatles style rock and modern pop; a sound for all generations. 8 MP3 Songs POP: Beatles-pop, ROCK: Classic Rock Details: Vincent Martella is currently shooting the 2nd season of the hit CW comedy, Everybody Hates Chris. The Peoples Choice and Golden Globe nominated Chris Rock comedy is produced by Paramount Television. The series is loosely based on the comedian's childhood. Vincent plays Greg, Chris Rocks best friend. Martella began dancing at the age of 3, and delivered his first live performance in The Nutcracker. He began playing the piano at 5. Not long after, Martella was performing in school plays and appearing in local commercial spots. At 6, he began acting and vocal training. By age 7, he was one of the hottest kids in the Central Florida market, working both print and national commercials. By age 10, it became clear that Martella was ready for Los Angeles. During his first trip to LA, he landed a guest spot on Foxs Cracking Up and a recurring role on Nickelodeons Neds Declassified where he developed his own character for the role of Scoop. The following summer, Vincent nabbed his first film role working opposite Rob Schneider in Deuce Bigelow: European Gigolo. Since then, Vincent has guest starred on the Fox comedy Stacked, starring Pamela Anderson, and lent his voice to the feature film Bad News Bears. Martellas voice will also be heard in the new Disney pilots Can You Dig It, as well as in Phineas and Ferb as the title character of Phineas. Phineas and Ferb has been picked up for a full season on the Disney Channel in 2007. Martella is very passionate about performing, whether it be singing, dancing or acting. He is currently in the studio working on original music. The completed album will be ready for download shortly. The young thespian is also known for his quick wit and impersonations. Though he is in Los Angeles most of the year, he lives in Florida with his mother, father and three siblings.
