Related styles: EASY LISTENING: Instrumental Pop Details: HOGS AND KISSES TO BROADWAY was written for all the politicians who threw kisses and smeared lipstick around during the national elections. It is a tribute to our politicians--The Phantom of the Opera (All politicians wear masks)--Send in the Clowns (Don't bother they ran for office)--Don't Cry for Me Argentina (Best political speech ever written)--Memory (Most politicians don't possess)--Make Believe, All That Jazz Razzle Dazzle (content of political speeches we are to believe)-- Where or When or On Broadway (Most don't know where they are)-- Oh, What a Beautiful Mornin'(Winner's song)-- God of our Fathers (Least they not forget who started this Great Country of ours.) Ann Southerland Canode plays the electronic keyboard and you will hear a variety of instruments played. She has played piano for over twenty years and once played for President Reagan's daughter, Maureen. Currently she plays her instrumental music for Retirement Villages and Nursing Homes. Most of her music,they all remember. It's easy listening and familiar tunes we all know and love.
