To understand the concept behind BASSMAN piece of art, you have to follow the directions of his ancestors 3T The Triangle Trade, most knowing as trade of Slave and fact is that he travelled from Africa to America and from America to Europe, just to accomplish his goal. This album is who I am, is what the world today is all about so many different races and cultures coming together for one cause, world peace. And I have the privileged to be a part of it says BASSMAN. BASS is well Known for his great character, positive way to represent Hip-Hop, not only by energetic and crowd engaging performances but also lyrically like Im constantly solvin conflicts around the world / develop a better place for your boys and girls - African Soldier. Even in some songs you can observe that he might say things that we do not necessary want to pay attention to as those days are over now / look what happen now / were forced to emigrate in the city of Nazis / white supremacy and the KKK / rest in peace Steve BIKO / we aint goin no where / we went from slavery to a civil war / and from civil war to industrial slavery - Lord tell me why. Actually, the inclusion of new sound occurred alongside with the demand of new generation of musicians and BASSMAN is a prefect example. The artist is only trying to play his part in promoting hip-hop and music in general. Therefore, BASSMAN is well aware of the contradictions of Hip-hops globalization process just like most of the international MCs, and thats the reason why he shares love and talent for music in general with his people not only in Africa but all around the world.
