Bill continued to excel in composing while attending college and graduating with a B.S in Exercise Sports Science. After college he began working as a loan consultant to finance his musical dreams. During this time, friends, family, coworkers and even his boss, all who had heard him perform, were persuading him to follow his dream of performing his music and sharing it with the world. Bill currently resides in California and in early 2004, was introduced to Bob Ravenscroft of Vesper Records. After discussing Bill's vision and listening to his work a special relationship was born between Bill and Bob. Work began immediately, and about 1 year later (March 2005) Bill has released his first CD with his second in the works. Bill is currently touring malls in the Western United States and is looking forward to kicking off his US and Asian tour in late 2005.
