BINKY blasts away all preconceived notions of female-made music as these four girls amalgamate metal and punk... with a trumpet. 13 MP3 Songs METAL: Thrash/Speed Metal, ROCK: Punk Details: BINKY is the spawn of four women who have been playing various forms of hardcore music with their roots firmly in old school punk. Forming a bridge to a new variety of post-industrial thrash, BINKY drives home their message with sheer aggression, not stopping to dirge and mourn society's fate, but forging ahead with a wall of heavy metal sound that purges the soul of urban and suburban angst. BINKY is: Windy Wild (drums/lead vocals): Formerly of Angel Corpus Christi and Axis of Evil as well as numerous other musical projects in a variety of genres. This child prodigy with a blotchy past bursts into her new life-affirming germination fronting BINKY from the back: slamming the skins into the apocalypse while spewing her demented views of the world. Klara Lux (guitar/vocals): Founder of The Brood, Typhoon and Lucy Stoners and acolyte of modern advanced decomposition theory, bestows her obsessive neuroguitar impressions to this unit, spiraling the whole into a frenzy of convulsing cathartic malaise. Tijanna Eaton (bass/screaming): Mastermind behind Virgin Def Squad and Color Failure, returns from a 10-year drug, sex and recovery-induced hiatus to beat the crap out of quirky, jangly, eclectic, and Doc. Erin Luther (trumpet/vocals): Classically trained in her instrument, applies it unconventionally to this post-industrial thrash unit, giving it an eerie, skewed carnival aura. BINKY is a band of daunting intensity. Their music has been described as carnival-deathmetal. And it will hurt you.
