Music for the Soul, easy listening, inspiring fingerstyle guitar with styles of , Celtic, classical and Jazz influences. try tracks,(4)(2)(5)(8) and (9) loved by both musicans and listeners 9 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Contemporary, EASY LISTENING: Background Music Details: Green Pastures and Along the Appian Road, Features my wifes beutiful flute playing. Have had many great responcees to these, recordings. Brian Patterson has a unique blend of jazz, celtic, classical, inspirational and new age acoustic guitar playing. In the earlier years of his of his playing he desired to become a composer not only who can create beautiful compositions but also broke the rules of the norm. He had a teacher who saw potential in his playing and ideas, began to teach and show him many different great artist that Brian quickly began to adapt to his playing. Influenced by Andres Sagovia, Christopher Parkins, Leo Kottkie, Alex de grassi, Chet Atkins, and many other greats. Brian also discovered that he had a real talent for playing jazz, and other styles of music. Brian accredits his gifting and music to God, he believes that He is the one who inspired him to come up new great sound, and believes with out his music wouldn't be special, he also accredits much to his wife who had many years of classical training on the piano and has good ear for music (who plays flute on Appian Way and Green Pastures, but dose not forget what his teacher and friend to this day has done for him in his quest for music. I hope that this music will touch your soul like it has for others, if it dose I can only thank my Maker for His spirit that is behind it, I hope it will bless you.
