Lyrics, rhyme, and hummable harmonies make this bundle of songs feel like old times, with you as the center of each song and its meaning. 10 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Crooners/Vocals, FOLK: Free-folk Show all album songs: Birds Flew High (When We Were Young) Songs Details: What kind of music spurs you to memorize the lyrics, identify with the lyrics, love the lyrics, and hum the tune over and over? These kind of songs, that's what kind. These songs are blues and adult, put perhaps not contemporary! These songs by Dennis Seibel remind us of the Coffee House days of old, when folk singers and acoustic players looked you in the eye and sang to you, and you would actually listen to the words. And then you would go home and sing the songs over and over again! Dennis Seibel has a large manila envelope full of rejection slips because his genre remains undefined. But you can tell him what you think as you hum these songs! Our definition of his work includes these words: soft, raw, under-produced, singable, mellow, and lovable. Sing one yourself!
