An irresistible blend of rock and fiddle: unique and powerful vocals, Celtic-inspired fiddling, and creative overlays of acoustic and electric guitar and mandolin. 13 MP3 Songs ROCK: Roots Rock, WORLD: Celtic Details: Dirty Luck is the first CD from DownDog, a Massachusetts fiddle/rock band with powerful vocals, driving rhythms, bluesy retro guitar leads, and a fiddle style that echoes the Celtic and Appalachian traditions. The songs range from the upbeat and rockin' anthem "America," which celebrates the freedom our soldiers continue to provide, to the quiet "Immigrant City," about growing up in the proud but weathered mill town of Lawrence, Mass., to a Buffet-like ode to sunny days, bikinis and beaches called "Place in the Sun." Sprinkled throughout are reworked fiddle tunes that put a contemporary twist on tradition. But why read about the songs when you can listen to them for yourself? Just click on the samples on this page. For more information on the individual songs, visit downdogtunes.com. At the site you can learn about the band, its members, its schedule and all the details of Dirty Luck, including lyrics. We hope you enjoy listening to the samples on this page and invite you to order a CD or two or twenty. We've tested the tunes at volume 11 while cruising down the highway with the windows down and the sunroof open and as background music while reading an exciting, if shallow, best seller. We've even inflicted it repeatedly on some of the band members' kids - with no harmful side effects. Enjoy!
