Catchy hooks, well crafted songs, and infectious grooves drive this ep of British influenced music. 5 MP3 Songs POP: New Wave, ROCK: Modern Rock Show all album songs: EP Songs Details: eject Andy Blunda : Vocals/Guitar Tim Boland : Guitar Paul Rogers : Bass Gary Sullivan : Drums We are all slaves to the songs, says Andy Blunda of his new band, Eject. And it shows in Ejects compelling performances, which breathe life into Blundas crafted compositions through cultured arrangements and four-as-one synergy. Having toured the world with platinum Texan trio Fastball and Rick Rubin protgs Paloalto, Blunda became disillusioned with the major label machine. Retreating to his fathers California home for a hiatus he soon found songs seeping out of him and, over a 3 year period, wrote an albums-worth of material. I just did what felt natural and easy and didnt worry about who would like them, Blunda recalls. Stimulated by the Cure, Smiths, Beatles, Pink Floyd and his classical training, Blundas songwriting impetus is timeless: Usually when I sit down to write its because Im bummed about a girl or Im happy about a girl or Im pissed-off at someone. Its hard for me to write when theres not some sort of drama in my life. An ad stating simply Peter Hook Wanted brought Brit bassist Paul Rogers on-board, with friend-of-a-friend Irish drummer Gary Sullivan and his countryman Tim Boland soon completing the Silver Lake, CA-based Eject. The great thing about realizing these songs live has been trying to do it with just four guys, without all the overdubs from the studio, Blunda explains. But I think in some ways its better and more honest. Its a real test for the songs to see if theyll hold up that way, and I think they have. Indeed, Ejects shows have instantly resonated with audiences and word-of-mouth is doing the rest. Putting music before everything is paying dividends for Eject, allowing them to side-step the sterile industry schmooze-fest: Ive been through the corporate machine and spit out the other side completely disgusted, says Blunda. I would like to see us do this all on our own terms. myspace.com/ejecttheband
