If you took the following and tossed them in a blender you'd get us: Maroon 5, Dave Mathews, Goo Goo Dolls, Nickel Back, Cake, Red Hot Chilli Peppers, Creed. (There's more but you get the idea) 7 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, POP: Folkly Pop Details: Visit endepdx for the best info on who we are, what we're doing, where we're playing etc. But in a nut shell: What do you get when you combine a solid groove with well thought pop hook and dynamic choruses? You get the four piece sonic uppercut known as ende. ende (pronounced "end") emerged from the groove ranch (their rehearsal space) with their unique sound in the spring of 2002. Since then, they've been taking it to the masses playing a variety of venues all over the Pacific Northwest where they are quickly gaining notoriety for their unique sound and their energetic stage show. ende combines the hook elements and pop sensibilities from the likes of Dave Mathews, The Red Hot Chili Peppers, Nickleback and Cake into a sound that is all their own. They released their first self funded EP, Vanillaroma, in the spring of 2004 which has been gobbled up by eager fans and club goers alike. They continue to promote the CD with live performances and aggressively use a variety of methods to reach out to new audiences and increase their rapidly growing fan base. Currently they are looking forward to a West Coast tour to continue the promotion of Vanillaroma and have already written the bulk of the songs for their next album due some time in the near future. ende continues to move forward with great strides and unmatched motivation. ende is a band bent on turning their dreams in to reality and has the sound and drive to make it happen.
