Strong, Powerful male vocals, accompanied by complex beats, ranging from Trip Hop, to EBM and IDM. Topped off with thought provoking lyrics inspired by the dark side of mankind. 6 MP3 Songs

ELECTRONIC: Experimental, ELECTRONIC: Industrial Details: Dark Victory was written when Aaron Ground, the voice and mind behind Hapless Distinction, was only 16 years old. How fitting the lyrics and meaning of the song are for any time period in mans history, for man has done just about anything and everything in their quest for power. Producers, and long-time friends, DJ Eth-nic and Indigo Survival put together a trippy, experimental, and mysterious looming soundscape to magnify the lyrical content, staying far away from any pop / mainstream radio-type sound. This single is just a prelude to the intricate thoughts soon to arrive from Hapless Distinction. So if you want uniqueness, this would be the thing to buy.
