Modern worship from Jessica Smith. Backed by the former rhythm section of Scarecrow Tinmen. Tracks range from aggressive rock to classically-inspired piano ballads. Great for those looking for a new sound.

10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, POP: with Live-band Production Details: At first listen, one would probably describe the music of singer-songwriter Jessica Smith-Wright in one word: diverse.

From the more rock-oriented tracks (backed by the former rhythm section from progressive rock act Scarecrow and Tinmen), one might think of Jessica as an artist in the vein of Jennifer Knapp or Christian music's answer to Michelle Branch. Yet the mature piano-based songs with classically-inspired arrangements might prompt comparisons to Sarah McLachlan. This wide range of music comes from the heart of a young woman, avoiding stylistic pigeonholes not by chance or by choice, but simply by writing the songs that inspire her emotionally and spiritually. ----- Be sure to check out her newest Spanish English CD, "Eres Real / So Real," also available at CD Baby!
