Details: With Note-ified, his fourth album, Mike has created what many are saying is his masterpiece: twelve breathtaking new songs written by Mike, and as always, recorded at home and featuring him on all instruments and vocals, with the exception of the warm and lovely Hand In Hand, where he is joined by his classically trained soprano/pianist wife Rella on lead vocals and piano. This new collection finds Mike delivering his most complex and adventurous work to date, both musically and lyrically; still touched by his love for The Beatles and sung in that emotive Lennon-spirited voice loved by his fans around the world. From the inspirational You Can Shine, Hope, and Nation Full Of Heroes to the cosmic beauty of Eyes Of The Universe, Words Through Time, and Beyond The Sunset, Behind The Sun; from the politically charged We Know You're Right to the self-reflective Short Term Memory Blues to the fantasy-laden world of Child Of The Water, Mike takes listeners on a graceful, powerful, and awe-inspiring journey that travels far beyond the parameters of today's standard musical fare. Since 2005, at least fifteen of Mike's recordings have received airplay on commercial, community, and internet radio stations in Australia, Canada, England, Germany, Italy, and the United States. One of his songs, Thanks To You, was featured on a charity CD produced by the British radio show BeatlesandBeyond in support of Adopt-A-Landmine and Diabetes UK, and four of his own versions of Beatles songs were recently included by an Illinois radio station on their promotional two CD 40th anniversary tribute to the White Album. From 2006-2008, Mike was a featured artist on the website of Beatles Brunch, the Sunday morning radio show carried by over 150 stations in North America.

With an ever-increasing support base, including his fans both here and abroad, the amazing British recording artist Peter Lacey, the gracious and incredibly dedicated BeatlesandBeyond radio show host Pete Dicks, and the fantastic Jamie Hoover of The Spongetones; and with his previous album "The Spirit Is The Source" so generously commented upon by the musical giant, legendary producer Clive Davis, Mikes new album Note-ified is certain to have others sit up and take notice.
