Details: I hope you enjoy these sad love songs. I started writing lyrics and melodies for love songs about fourteen years ago. Many of the saddest songs are based on Brazilean love songs. When I lived in Brazil twenty years ago, the love songs that were popular on the radio and blaring from the music shops on the street, made a huge impression on me. Some of the saddest songs are sung in Portuguese. I love the music of Brazil and wanted to try and capture the spirit of their love songs when I wrote the lyrics and melodies of the songs on Losing Your Love. I hope you enjoy the album.
