Original songs from an award-winning singer-songwriter combine an upbeat "new-country" sound with the art of acoustic literature. 11 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: Susan Graham White's second solo album demonstrates her continuing growth as a writer, producer and vocalist. The upbeat "new country" sound of the award winning "Train Wreck" shows her ability to tap into the more commercial sound of country music while songs like "Down To The River" and "Love Runs Slow" illustrate Susan's continued commitment to the art of lyrical composition. This album has been previously internationally released by Blixstreet Records under the title "Not Afraid to Fly". REVIEWS: " SHOW A LITTLE HEART" White's vocals are comforting, melodic, and inviting - a bit like the warmth of Mary Chapin Carpenter's voice combined with the songwriting imagination of Carole King. "Show A Little Heart" could be Susan Graham White's 'Tapestry'. Karen Robinson The Folk Acoustic Music Exchange You've hit a homer - a hole-in-one...You're a sight for sore ears. Tom Paxton
