Brit-based pop with Pakistani influences. Will take you on a weird global trip where you'll come across funky chics, exotic desserts, strange airlines and languages you don't understand. On your travels you might get stranded at an airport for a few years 17 MP3 Songs POP: Beatles-pop, ROCK: Acoustic Details: TEE-M (Tariq Mirza) grew up in Karachi, Pakistan hearing rock/pop on the short-wave radio, listening to street musicians playing the tunes of the land and learning to strum on a hand-me-down guitar. TEE-M's first album EARTHiotic...songsfromaoneroompalace made it's worldwide debut on Mike Stark's (author, Black Sabbath: An Oral History) "Rock 50" internet radio show on wpmd.org The cd was reviewed and critiqued live by Bernard Baur* (Music Connection Mag) "TEE-M is a very, very solid songwriter...this album is a remarkable achievement" and Mike Stark* "I'm a huge fan...I love this record!". This was the first time ever that an album by an unsigned artist was reviewed and critiqued live by two nationally known pop writers. EARTHiotic...songsfromaoneroompalace is produced by Geoff Tyson (stimulatorband.com) and Tariq Mirza and released on coolvinylrecords with worldwide distribution through cdbaby.com TEE-M can also be heard worldwide co-hosting with the legendary Mike Stark on WPMD "TEE-M's UNsigned Music Show" (a genre busting show, where the UNsigned revolution is on) which celebrated its anniversary with fourteen artists performing live (also a first in internet radio) and capped off the party with an all-star UNsigned finale of TEE-M's song Aao, Aao, Aao. TEE-M has toured for Starbucks and is featured in the short film, The Ultimate Song ("a real winner" New York Times) also includes Springsteen, Jackson Browne, Wayne Kramer(MC5) Tom Morello, Ice T, Steve Earle and others. The film has been shown at Farm Aid and SXSW. TEE-M lit the Flame of Peace Candle and performed at John Lennon's birthday remembrance in front of Capitol Records and has been selected Music Connection Magazine's 100 Hottest Unsigned Artists, 5 years in a row. Currently filmmaker Lisa

Scott (Under Three Strikes, The Ultimate Song) has started production of "You Go On". (trk 15 on EARTHNOTIC...) The feature length film will chronicle the efforts of TEE-M and several other independent musicians determined to sidestep the major label model and find alternative methods of distributing their music. YouGoOnMovie EARTHNOTIC...is gaining sales and fans in Boston, MA, Chicago, IL, Springfield, MO, London, England, Los Angeles, Santa Monica, Culver City, Stockton, CA, and Karachi, Pakistan. Please have your own EARTHNOTIC...listening parties and laptops ready, CD Baby people are standing by. And while you're at it, go ahead, write a review of the album, now don't be shy, who knows this could be the start of your career in pop journalism!!!! * "This is an artist who is taking a courageous step and breaking rules that most people follow". --Bernard Baur (Music Connection) * "The thing about New Orleans and Aao,Aao,Aao and some of his other songs is that they are so catchy...They get embedded in your mind. I guess that's what makes a great pop song". --Mike Stark (Author, Black Sabbath: An Oral History) tee-m Santa Monica, CA
