In 1991, his family moved to the West Coast in search for a better future. It just so happens they landed in the Central Valley. T.U-K. adapted and adopted Modesto, CA as his own. As the years passed he hooked up with a talented bunch that shared similarities and had potential. This persuaded him to reach out and start a new era in his life. Quoted from his own words "I put one and one together and man I can't lose." That's when he put music and the ruff-neck lifestyle together, and came up with a unique blend of rhymes. Now, with the help of his "crew" and a large fan base, T.U-K. strides to put Modesto, CA on the hip-hop map. The album was produced and mixed by Hip-Hop/R&B sensation Young Mozart, who has worked with the likes of Christina Milian, Ne-Yo, Keak Da Sneak (Featured on E4O's Smash Single "Tell Me When To Go"), and has track placements on MTV shows such as Pimp My Ride, Making the Video, America's Next Top Model, and more... Guest appearances on "...See What I See" include: Bay Area's own Sann Quinn, who appeared on MTV2's 2006 Speacial "MY BLOCK:THE BAY", C.Kay, Ram-C-Note, T-One, AL Honey, Mr. Fada, TraGiC(X'Zibit's 2005 HipHop SupaStar Finalist) 2002's American Idol finalist Alexis Lopez!!!
