Russian-born Yelena is a Los Angeles-based recording artist, singer, violinist and songwriter. Influenced by the life of her family in the communist Russia, her own journey of faith, music of the Russian Baptist Church and Christian artists (Nichole Norde 12 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, POP: Today's Top 40 Details: Originally from Alma-Ata, Kazakhstan, Yelena moved to Los Angeles with her family in 1990. Pursuing freedom of worship and opportunity, they left behind all that was known to them. Today, she is pursuing her calling as an artist spreading the Gospel. She teamed up with a Nigerian artist Age Beeka and Los Angeles producer Steve Phillips to bring to life this soundtrack to her life for the past year. It's about going through the night, seeking God's direction, submitting to His will and ultimately knowing that all things work together for good to those who love Him. Yelena loves to lead worship. "Worshipping the one and only God of the universe is a huge priveledge, but to lead others into His presence on top of that is the ultimate calling. It's very humbling to be used by God." This is her desire, to be used by God and to be significant for His kingdom.
