Bill Mann writes songs in an eclectic blend of country styles that remind us who we are, why were here and where we are going. Sometimes acoustic, sometimes electric, occasionally philosophical, never depressing, always heart-opening. 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Folk, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: About Your Heart Knows Bill Manns CD, Your Heart Knows, features 10 thoughtful, well-crafted songs written by a journeyman singer-songwriter with a passion for songwriting. From the lively country rocker, Give A Little Love to the hauntingly beautiful To All The Broken Shells, Bill takes the listener on a true journey of the heart, traveling on the rhythms of country, light rock, contemporary folk, reggae and light jazz. Briefly Biographical Bill draws on a wide variety of musical influences to express what is important to him: love, spiritual growth, relationships, hope, friendship and laughter, among others. He likes to laugh and has a light-hearted approach to life that is reflected on stage. My songs touch a wide range of emotions, so my audience may laugh in one song and shed a tear in the next. But the negative is not my calling. Theres enough anger and fear in the world without me stirring things up. Id rather sing a song that opens the heart. Bill has performed in clubs, colleges, festivals, private concerts and seminars for several decades. Along the way, he has entertained audiences across the 48 states and Canada, as well as in Alaska, Europe, Australia and even Africa, and has opened for John Sebastian, Robert Cray, Nick Lowe and Delbert McClinton, among others. He has appeared at Nashvilles Bluebird Caf, Amsterdams Paradiso Night Club and Seattles Northwest Folklife Festival, as well as performed live on radio stations from Kodiak, Alaska to Tampa, Florida. He is currently working on a double CD, Heart and Soul, to be released later this year.
